Identify this feature

Géologie et géo-tourisme

Well, for my first serious attempt, I was lucky enough to identify a nice photo of a segment of the Kunlun fault, on Peter Luffi's web site. Now it's my turn to propose an image ; this being my first attempt, I do not have a good feeling for what constitutes a good or bad challenge, but since I quite like this (geological) feature, let's have a go :

Where on (google) Earth ?

For my first challenge, I'll be conservative and have Schott's law in effect ; after all, I feel compelled to be newbie-friendly.
